THE Macon Military band has just made its appearance.
The Cameron band had better look to its laurels or it may be relegated to the rear.

If You Would Be Young.
Keep in the sunlight; nothing beautiful or sweet grows or ripens in the darkness.

Avoid fear in all its varied forms of expression; it is the greatest enemy of the human race.

Avoid excesses of all kinds; they are injurious. The long life must be a temperate, regular life.

Don't live to eat, but eat to live. Many of our ills are due to overeating, to eating the wrong things and to irregular eating.

Don't allow yourself to think on your birthday that you are a year older and so much nearer the end.

Never look on the dark side; take the sunny views of everything; a sunny thought drives away the shadows.

Cultivate the spirit of contentment; all discontent and dissatisfaction bring age prematurely to the face.

Form a habit of throwing off before going to bed at night all the cares and anxieties of the day—everything which can possibly cause mental wear and tear or deprive you of rest.

A Livery Trust.
A liverymen's trust is the latest thing in this neck of the woods, and it is composed of liverymen in Howard, Randolph and Chariton counties.

Its first meeting was held at Salisbury Wednesday of last week, and a "uniform schedule of prices" was unanimously adopted.

C. S. Patnott of the livery firm of Patnott & Wilks of Keytesville presided as chairman of the meeting and Will Jackson of the firm of T. J. Jackson & Son, Salisbury, served as secretary.

The schedule of prices adopted was signed by all liverymen present, and W. J. Dye of Brunswick and O. L. Masterson of Salisbury were appointed as a committee to visit all of the livery-men within a radius of 40 miles for the purpose of inducing them to conform to the same rates.

Is it about time for the newspapers of Chariton county follow suit in the matter of "uniform prices," and make some money?

If we are to be held up by other trusts, why not have a little one of our own?

It's a lonely game that can't be played by more than one.

This is a day of trust tribute, and we've about made up our mind to "get in line" as a matter of self-preservation.

When Pat Laughed Last.
A short time ago two Englishmen on a visit to Ireland hired a boat for the purpose of having a sail.

One of the Britons, thinking he would have a good joke at Pat's expense, asked him if he knew anything about astrology.

"Be jabbers," said Pat.
"Then that's the best part of your life just lost," answered the Englishman.

The second Englishman then asked Pat if he knew anything about the ology.

"Be jabbers, no," answered Pat.
"Well," the second said, "I must say that's the very best part of your life lost."

A few minutes later a sudden squall arose and the boat capsized. Pat began to swim. The Britons, however, could not swim and both called loudly to Pat to help them.

"Do you know anything about swim ology?" asked Pat.
"No," answered both Englishmen.
"Well, be jabbers," replied Pat,
"then both of your lives is lost."
